Catholic Paws/Catholic Pause

Rollerball continue to sharpen their unique musical vision with the release of their third Silber cd titled Catholic Paws/Catholic Pause. On their 11th album, Rollerball continue pushing the boundaries between song & sound, free & structured, light & darkness. Utilizing every sonic knife in the aural scabbard, Rollerball grafts organic song structure to analog jazz and digital noise.

Experimenting. Collaborating. Making beautiful power music that creates emotion & energy. This time along for the ride, Rollerball packs it's horn section with tuba guru Ben Wright, Italian sax stallion Jacopo Andreini, & Dang Head's Jamie Smith & Dylan Hinkley, & once again Ovo lends Rollerball their really scary vocal & drum talents. Catholic Paws/Catholic Pause has all the elements that make a Rollerball album so original, the catchy pop songs with tints of goth, the jazz maelstroms & the ambient whimpers.

Catholic Paws/Catholic Pause was recorded at Muddmakr & Surfactant Bleed, the band's two studios in Portland, OR. Rollerball will be playing a spat of shows in the NW in March & April before leaving for Europe for their third European tour & a west coast tour in August. Join in the excitement.
