

Six Feet Below the Snow

The holidays are back again. It's 2011 & we have come bearing gifts from the distant land of Silberia. Gifts of noise & drone & pop & atmospheres to melt the snow above us.

Twenty artists appear this time out running from the bizarre (check out the first track from Charles DeMar) to polished pop (Jon DeRosa's take on "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear") & of course to the bedroom sounds & aggressive ambient & guitar drone that are Silber's signature. New friends & old friends all in celebration together. So remember with us that this is the time of year when people of all faiths celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ.

Please tell your friends & enjoy the free music stream or save the tracks to your device to listen wherever you go.

Available for free stream or download from Silber Records

For full liner notes & band links go to: www.silbermedia.com/comps/sixfeet

silber records

po box 18062, raleigh, nc 27619, usa <http://www.silbermedia.com>

six feet below the snow

