

RLLRBLL

MURWA MBWA

Rllrbll (formerly Rollerball) returns to Silber with a special free five song EP of their unique blend of music. Part free jazz, part post punk, & part art rock; Rllrbll live in a world where musical boundaries have disappeared. Sun Ra, New Order, King Crimson, & Deep Purple all belong on the same bill with Rllrbll as the opening act.

Swahili for taco dog (pet name for the beloved cat Nilla (R.I.P.)), Murwa Mbwa collects out takes for an album to be completed in 2012. For those of you who have been out of the Rllrbll loop a while the band has slimmed down to it's original core members from back in 1997 of Mae Star (keyboards, noises, vocals), Monte Allen (bass), & Gilles (drums, percussion) but of course always with friends. The special guests this time out are Andy Brown doing additional keys & percussion on "Wah Kitty" & Spit Stix of Fear acting as mixer & producer (as he has for the likes of Red Hot Chili Peppers & Nina Hagen). Spit Stix will be working with Rllrbll on their next full length to be unleashed in 2012.
