

DRLNG

Icarus

DRLNG is a new project featuring former members of Boston dreampop act Plumerai. They hail from New York & Paris & tip their hat to a variety of influences like Seventeen Seconds era Cure, Siouxsie & the Banshees, Bjork, & Ella Fitzgerald mixing them all into one cohesive sound of their own. Dreamy organic songscapes fused with Eliza Brown's distinctive croon to complete their sound.

DRLNG's debut EP Icarus was recorded at Mystic Valley Studios, one of the few 100% analog studios left in North America, by Alex Garcia-Rivera (Piebald) to replicate the environment that created some of the masterpiece records we grew up on & to embrace the limitations & assets of real tape. As such there are a limited number of vinyl records of the EP pressed up by A Secret Brand.

If you like shoegaze, dreampop, or neo-psychedelia DRLNG is not to be missed.
