

Kirchenkampf is John Gore. He has been making electronic music since 1986 as well as running the label Cohort Records. Silber's been in touch with him on & off more or less since day one & it's great to have the opportunity to work with him.

On The Body Electric Kirchenkampf creates the sounds you hallucinate while trying to go to sleep on a space ship after being transferred into a new body to live through your mission. If you can call your new form of existence living.
