

DYR FASER

Dyr Faser is Eric Boomhower & part of Boston's growing lo-fi post-punk/proto-goth scene. Taking notes from godfathers of the genres like Joy Division, Depeche Mode, Suicide, Durutti Column, & Coil – Dyr Faser blends it all together & gives you five one minute shots that hit you like $2 shots at an after hours bar. You can't help but nod your head to the drum machine rhythms as you wait for the creature lurking in the darkness to destroy you. Don't worry; the monsters have always been your friends.
